

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CROSS-INSTITUTIONAL ENROLMENT IN SOCIOLOGY OF DISASTERS ON-LINE COURSE

as a graduate course (SOCY6008)

1. You will first need to obtain a letter from your University indicating that they will credit this course towards your degree.
2. Complete the application form for non-award admission – see below. Some parts of the form have already been filled out. You complete the rest
3. Send, (1) the completed form and
(2) letter of approval from your university ,

to Admissions Office
ANU
Canberra ACT 0200

Deadline for applications is 28 June.

4. At the same time that you apply email the lecturer Andrew.Hopkins@anu.edu.au to let him know of your intention to enrol. Please provide him your contact details – email address, telephone numbers and mail address. If you are in employment please provide the name of your employer, the type of business and the kind of work that you do. Contact him again if you have any problems enrolling
5. Once the ANU Admissions Office has allocated you your student number and the form has been approved by the Faculty of Arts Executive Officer, a letter of offer will be generated by the Faculty. This will include an ISIS password for access to WebCT. WebCT is the software through which the course will be delivered.
6. On receipt of the letter of offer, you should “accept” the offer by returning the appropriate form.
7. You should then allow approximately a week for the ISIS password to be activated.
8. Fees
If you are paying for your course using the PELS scheme you will be charged on this basis.
If you are paying up-front the fee will be $924 plus an amenities fee of $97.50 (These figures are subject to confirmation.)
