

HISTORY, SCHOOL OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

SEMINAR PROGRAM

Semester Two 2009

Time: 4.30-5.30pm, Wednesdays.

Venue: The Fairbairn Room (1207), first floor, Haydon-Allen Building (22), Australian National University

- | | |
|--------------|---|
| 29 July | Catherine Bishop, History (SSS), 'Uncovering the hidden colonial workforce: the search for sources on urban working women in nineteenth century Australia and New Zealand'. |
| 5 August | Michael Ledger Lomas (Cambridge University), 'The Road to Damascus: Religious Experience and the Past in the Nineteenth Century'. |
| 12 August | Ned Curthoys, RSH, 'Taboo Memories, Diasporic Visions: the transformation of Jewish historical consciousness in Germany, 1750-1933'. |
| 19 August | Melissa McEwan, History (SSS), 'Finding the present in the past: representation of the 1960s in the 1980s'. |
| 26 August | Amanda Laugesen, History (SSS), 'Books for Modernization: American Book Publishing Programs and the Cultural Cold War in Developing Countries, 1950-1970' |
| 2 September | Joan Stivala, History (SSS), 'Why was Seneca a long time a dying?' |
| 9 September | Carroll Purcell, History (RSSS), 'Extreme and Impolite Sports: Technologies of Play'. |
| 16 September | Barbara Caine (Monash University), 'Changing patterns in women's autobiography, c.1850-1960' (joint seminar with RSSS). |

- 23 September Angela Woollacott, History (SSS), 'Race and the Modern Exotic: Three "Australian" Women on Global Display'
- 14 October Research Forum: Historians of the School of Social Sciences discuss their current projects.
- 21 October Mark Dawson, History (SSS), 'First Impressions: Newspaper Advertisements and Early Modern English Body Imaging, c.1650-1750'.
- 28 October Merridee Bailey, History (SSS), title TBA